- A) Andrew: "I'm having problems choosing my school subjects because I'm not sure what I want to do in the future. I don't know if I should pick the subjects that I enjoy or the ones that are the most useful in getting a job. I don't want to make the wrong choice now – it might affect my career."
- B) Sue: "The only problem with school is that we have to take exams all the time. In my opinion, exams don't really show what you know, but we spend most of our time preparing for them and worrying about them. My parents think that exam results are the most important thing in the world and the teachers are always pushing us. We never get a break!"
- C) Greg: "I don't like studying and I'm not good at it, so school feels like a prison to me – I'd really like to leave. But these days there's a lot of pressure on everyone to stay at school and then to study at a college or university. It used to be easier when my parents were growing up. I think there were more choices open to them."
- D) Diana: "For me, the main issue is money, because that means freedom. My parents aren't rich and I hate having to depend on them. I've got a Saturday job, but it doesn't pay very well. I want to go to university, but that's also going to be expensive. When will I be able to earn my own money and live my own life?"
