*) In accordance with Section 74, Subsection 9 of the Education Act, at schools or in classes where education is carried out in line with international programmes in accordance with Section 7, Subsection 6, the school leaving examination is undertaken pursuant to the regulations of the international programme. A school leaving examination undertaken pursuant to an international programme is considered equivalent to the school leaving examination as defined in this Act if such school leaving examination includes an examination in the Slovak language and literature. If a school leaving examination undertaken pursuant to an international programme does not include an examination in the Slovak language and literature, the student needs to undertake a school leaving examination in the Slovak language and literature as defined in this Act; a school leaving examination pursuant to an international programme concomitant with a school leaving examination in the Slovak language and literature is considered equivalent to the school leaving examination as defined in this Act.

The preliminary choice of subjects is not binding. The final choice of subjects will be confirmed by the student at the initial meeting after admission.
